MARIE CHRISTINE

ABOUT ME

Hi! My name is Marie Christine. I am a skincare expert and self-admitted product junky. I teach women of all ages how to heal and revitalize their skin so that makeup can become optional and fun instead of a mandatory obligation. I educate on products, and techniques and openly share the good, bad and ugly about procedures I've had done. I have a large and loyal Instagram following of over 42k and a rapidly growing TikTok account. My biggest goal is for women to learn how to love the skin they're in and appreciate their natural beauty while following my content.

SERVICES & RATES

Marie Christine

When it comes to working with brands it's very important that I only promote things that I truly believe in. My community trusts me and the products that I promote. My rates are non-negotiable and based on an average return on investment for the company that I choose to partner with.
